3. PRICING, PAYMENT AND FINANCE

- 3.1 The Company may (but is not obliged to) provide a quotation or price list to the Customer in respect of certain Goods, however any such quotation or price list:
- (a) does not constitute an offer by the Company of any kind; and
 - (b) is provided as a pricing guide only and is not binding.
- 3.2 Unless otherwise agreed between the Company and Customer in writing:
- (a) all Delivery Costs will be at the Customer's cost in addition to the purchase price for the relevant Goods; and
 - (b) prices are subject to any variations to currency exchange rates and Delivery Costs occurring prior to the time of delivery.

 - (b) time is of the essence in respect of payment by the Customer of amounts owing to the Company under or in connection with any Contract.
- 3.4 Without in any way affecting the Company's other rights, if the Customer does not pay any amount which is payable to the Company by the due date for payment, the Customer must pay to the Company interest:

- 4.3 The Customer must promptly pay all stamp duty, transaction, registration and similar taxes, including fines and penalties which may be payable to, or required to be paid by, any appropriate government authority or determined to be payable in connection with the execution, delivery, performance or enforcement of the Contract or any payment, receipt or other transaction contemplated by the Contract.

 - (c) the time that the Customer otherwise takes possession of the Goods.
- 5.4 If the Goods are delivered by or on behalf of the Company to the Customer, the signature, order or acknowledgement of delivery of any manager, operator, employee or person appearing to be in charge of the location at which delivery is made is prima facie evidence of the fact of delivery of the Goods to the Customer and the quantity of Goods delivered.
- 5.5 If:
- (a) the Goods are delivered by or on behalf of the Company to the Customer, collected by or on behalf of the Customer or the Customer otherwise takes possession of the Goods; and
 - (b) the Customer forms the reasonable opinion that the Goods are improper, defective or damaged (whether in transit or not), the Customer must give the Company a written notice containing reasonable details of the alleged damage or defect ("Damage Notice").
- 5.6 If the Customer does not give the Company a Damage Notice within 3 days of delivery, collection or possession of the Goods, or within 180 days for Goods that have concealed damage, then to the maximum extent permitted by Law:

- 6.3 The Customer and the Company agree that these Standard Terms give rise to a Security Interest in favour of the Company over the Secured Property (the Relevant Security Interest) and that that Relevant Security Interest:
- (a) is a "purchase money security interest", with that term given the same meaning as in the PPSA; and
 - (b) secures payment of the purchase price of the Goods and of all other amounts payable by the Customer to the Company (including, without limitation, the Liabilities and any amount payable to the Company by the Customer under and in connection with any Collateral Document) (the Secured Monies) and the performance by the Customer of the Customer's obligations under the Standard Terms.

- (a) acknowledges that if the Company accepts any Order from the Customer or otherwise supplies Goods to the Customer, it does so on the basis that it is obtaining the benefit of the Relevant Security Interest; and
 - (b) must promptly do all acts, matters and things required by the Company to:
 - (i) procure the grant of any Encumbrance as requested by the Company from time to time to provide more effective security to the Company over the Secured Property for the payment of the Secured Money; and
